Thinking About Having A Garage Sale?

There are many things to think about when deciding to have a garage sale. Here are some answers to the most frequently asked questions to help insure a successful garage sale.

Do I need a permit to have a garage sale, yard sale, moving, or estate sale?

Yes, a permit is required for a garage sale, yard sale, moving, or estate sale.

How much does a permit cost?

The cost to obtain a garage sale permit is $5.00.

Can I pay with a credit card or apply it to my water bill?

At this time we are only able to accept cash or checks.

What happens if it rains or I don't have the sale?

If you cancel your entire sale because of bad weather or an unforeseen emergency you can call and request a rain date. However, you must call and make the request on the first day listed on your permit. We ask that you keep your signs since we will not be able to furnish new signs.

How many days in advance before my sale do I need to obtain my garage sale permit?

There are no certain number of days in advance just as long as you get the permit before your sale begins.

Do Non-Profit Organizations need a Permit?

Yes, Non-Profit organizations must obtain a permit and signs. However, the $5.00 fee will be waived.

Does it matter where I place my permit?

There is no set location where your permit must be posted. However, it is best to place your permit in a location where it is visible.

Can several families have a garage sale together?

Yes, more than one family can combine their articles for a sale. If the sale is held at one address, only one permit is required. If it is held at more than one address, each address shall purchase a garage sale permit.

How many days can I have a garage sale?

You can have a garage sale up to 3 consecutive days.

How many times a year can I have a garage sale?

You can have two garage sales a year. One every 6 months per address.

How many signs am I allowed to post?

Only two signs are allowed by ordinance and are provided with your permit.

Where may signs be placed?

The signs may be placed 24 hours prior to the sale date. Signs shall be removed within 24 hours after expiration of the permit. No sign shall be posted on any curb, sidewalk, utility post, pole, hydrant, bridge, tree, fence, or other surface located on public property, or any public right-of-way or center medians. Be sure to include your permit number on your sign. However, we suggest waiting to put your signs up the morning of your sale and picking them back up that same evening.

Is it important that I remove my garage sale signs when I am finished?

YES! When your garage sale is over, please pick up the garage sale signs and dispose of them properly.
