FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lifeguard and Water Safety Instructor classes are being offered soon, for Yukon teens and adults who want to make a splash and earn some cash in 2015. It's not too early to think about a job as a lifeguard with the Yukon Parks and Recreation Department. The Parks and Recreation department urges kids to get their lifeguard certification classes scheduled now so they can apply as soon as possible. "We are looking for fun, energetic, and responsible applicants who want to work at a great summer job," says Superintendent of Recreation, Quincy Rinkle. Get your application in today. Applications are available online at www.cityofyukonok.gov

Enroll in a class now! Several locations offer training in aquatics. They include Foster indoor pool, Oklahoma City Community College, Redlands Community College, and Rose State College. Each of these locations has advertised classes for lifeguard training in the next several months.

Other summer jobs are available, such as, Pool Supervisor, Swim Lessons Coordinator, Pool Maintenance/Technician, Concessions, Camp Counselor and Park Maintenance.

The Yukon Parks and Recreation is one of Yukon's best departments. Optimism, energy and opportunity inspire the best in everything we do. To learn more about Yukon's best, visit www.cityofyukonok.gov or call 405-350-8937.
