Programs for Adults:

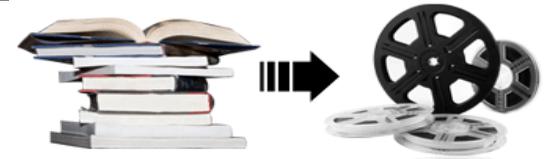

Author Talk and Book Signing

Dr. Wade McCoy, M.D. from Bethany, OK, is the author of, "A Rainbow in the Dark," Set in 1945 rural Oklahoma, the book is based on the turbulent and true story of Dr. Henry Kirkland. In it we meet Kirk, a 14 year-old teen who, after his family abandons him, finds himself mixed up in a murderous white-collar crime scheme. He is rescued by Skeet, the local pharmacist in a move that upsets his fellow townspeople. Both Dr. Wade McCoy & Dr. Henry Kirkland will be here to present this dynamic story!

Thursday, March 13th at 6:30pm

Programs for Adults:

BOOKS TO MOVIES

We will explore 3 books and their films. Although each title is different in setting and story, they all contain one common thread: A restriction of personal freedom and the chance to rise above circumstance and persevere with great fortitude.

Book titles in this series are:

Princess Among Slaves,
Not Without My Daughter,
and Memoirs of a Geisha

- 1.) Register for the program
- 2.) Pick up your book at the Circulation Desk
- 3.) Read the book.
- 4.) Watch the movie (dates listed below)
- 5.) Discuss and compare the book to its movie

The books for this discussion series will be provided for participants. They are to be returned to the library when the series ends.
