3. Consider motion to appoint a person to fill the Ward I vacancy for the un-expired term thereof

Council Member Weller stated he wanted to thank each person who came tonight, as he was very impressed, as were the other council members, with each of their interviews. He stated it was obvious each of them were well prepared and he was impressed with the way each of them expressed their feelings for Yukon. Mr. Weller added that "any of you would be great."

Mayor Vinson stated that she concurred with Mr. Weller, and that he had remarked during their discussion that "we can't make a bad decision" with this group of candidates and he was right, as each candidate was very impressive. She added she would encourage each person to stay involved with the City.

Council Member Weller made a motion, seconded by Council Member Maxey, to name Earline Smaistrla to the vacant Ward I position to fill the unexpired term.

A roll call vote was taken:
