Visiting the Chisholm Trail & celebrating the history of our western heritage
...cajun style!!!

Yukon's western heritage is celebrated on the Chisholm Trail crossing at the Kirkpatrick Farm which is located on Garth Brooks Blvd. "Olde Towne" welcomes you with a Saloon, Millinery, Parker Station, Sheriff's Office, General Store, Nellie's and the Red School House. Professor Hedgethicket, Miracle Worker Extraordinaire, Medicine Man, the music of Wayne Cantwell "Flying Fiddler", The Saltford Craftsmen, and the Oklahoma Selfbow Society will provide a full day of entertainment. Buffalo Bill Cody, portrayed by Kent Shelton, and all the Hanlon Lee Action Theater Actors, provide a great Wild West Show. Snake Eyes and the Bug Band set your toes tappin' with their Zydeco music and some of you will be forced to join in the Cajun dancing! It's hard to say no! Don't be surprised to hear a gunfight starting at Olde Towne - The Guthrie Gunfighters and the Marlow Gunfighters are not quiet for long! If that's not enough, the Civil War camps will be firing their cannons. Alan Swartz' gun collection is a must see, along with the many historical reenactment camps. Numerous other events are also scheduled. ALL ENTERTAINMENT IS FREE!

Craft Vendors have something for everyone! Crawfish will be on the menu - to eat - and to race! Try the Chisholm Trail Lemonade! Food Vendor choices are fantastic!

The Chisholm Trail and Crawfish Festival provides you with a "fun" day for all your family. Hay Bales are scattered to provide a place to rest and enjoy or stroll down by the pond on the Chisholm Trail, sit in the shade of a tree and enjoy the view! THERE IS NO ADMISSION CHARGE!
